

Dear colleagues!

We would like to invite you to participate in the XI International Conference and Exhibition "Corrosion-2012" which will be held in the ancient city of Lviv.

The city is famous for its historical and architectural monuments and has considerable scientific and industrial potential.

All previous conferences-exhibitions from this series also were held in Lviv during 1992-2010 and testified significant interest of specialists not only from Ukraine but also from other countries, particularly Croatia, Great Britain, Italy, Japan, Germany, Hungary, Mexico, Poland, Portugal, Russia, Turkey and others. Many scientific developments, presented at previous exhibitions, were used by industry.

*Chairman of the Organizing Committee,
President of Ukrainian Association of Corrosionists*

Professor V. Pokhmurskii
